Wildcat '70

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Edward Smith, Sr.

Ideals are like stars; you will not succeed in touching them with your hands, but like the seafaring man on the desert of waters, you choose them as your guides, and following them you reach your destiny.

— Carl Schurz

Because of all he has done for El Dorado High School, we the annual staff of the 1970 Wildcat dedicate this book to Mr. Harold E. Smith, Sr., principal. He above anyone else, has performed the hardest task of all. He has had to combine two campuses not only in school unity, but in making the sophomores feel part of EHS. The past few years Mr. Smith has successfully put into effect the module system. He has diligently worked for this school for the past 11 years above and beyond the call of duty. For all you have done for us and our school, we thank you, Mr. Smith.

1970 Wildcat Dedicated To Mr. Harold Smith

Despite perfection or imperfection, beauty or the epitome of ugliness, bitter hatred or passionate love; the question is always asked, "What would have happened IF . . . ."

IF

If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you,
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowance for their doubting too;
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
Or being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or being hated don't give way to hating,
And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise:
If you can dream — and not make dreams your master;
If you can think — and not make thought your aim,
If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster
And treat those two imposters just the same;
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken
Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken,
And stoop and build 'em up with worn-out tools:
If you can make one heap of all your winnings
And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss,
And lose, and start again at your beginnings
And never breathe a word about your loss;
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone,
And so hold on when there is nothing in you
Except the Will which says to them: "Hold on!"
If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with kings — nor lose the common touch,
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty second's worth of distance run,
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And — which is more — you'll be a Man, my son!

Central Office Heads 1969-70 School Year

MR. W. D. TOMMEY, Superintendent of Schools

MR. HARVEY L. YOUNG, Director of Instruction.

MR. JAMES WASSON, Business Manager and Purchasing Agent.

The activities of El Dorado High School as well as fifteen other schools within the district are being organized at the central office. Heading this office is Superintendent W. D. Tommey and his assistants Harvey Young, James D. Wasson, and James N. Riley. The central office is divided into nine separate departments covering all aspects of the school system including personnel, budgeting, buildings and federal programs. Director of Instruction, Harvey L. Young, supervises all the principals and classroom teachers in the area of instruction. Mr. Young is also in charge of the teaching materials, such as textbooks, used in the school system. Coordinator and Planning Director James N. Riley, supervises all programs funded under the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965. Mr. Riley is also the director of the South Arkansas Curriculum Laboratory which includes the Arboretum and the educational media laboratory. James D. Wasson, assistant superintendent in charge of buildings and grounds, and purchasing agent, responsible for the acquisition of materials, equipment and supplies. He also plans and directs the maintenance of all the faculties in this district.

MR. JAMES RILEY, Coordinator and Planning Director

THE 1969-70 SCHOOL BOARD are William Stark, Lee Roy Beasley, President, Paul G. Henley, Vice President, John Meadows.

RICHARD H. MAYS, Mrs. John Yocum, Mrs. James Cunningham, Secretary, and Mr. Robert Dudley, Treasurer.

Large Campus Requires More Supervisors

Serving as administrators this year were Mr. Harold Smith, Mr. Jim Carelock, Mr. Ronald Hughes, Mr. M. L. Williams, and Mr. Ray Lumpkin. Mr. Smith served as principal of both East and West campus with Mr. Hughes and Mr. Williams serving as his assistants on West Campus. Mr. Carelock acted as vice-principal on East Campus with Mr. Lumpkin assisting him part of each day.

Secretaries Help Direct Activities

The personnel in the attendance offices at East and West campus do more than keep records of attendance. When not rushed with admitting late or "forgetful" students to class, they are busy organizing announcements for the intercom. Detention records are kept in the attendance office. Original schedules are on file for the use of teachers, other students, and parents for help in locating students at a specific time of the day. When students are absent, these faithful ladies call parents for excuses. From this, teachers are aided by the absentee list made by the diligent workers in the attendance office. The employes at West campus are: Mrs. Norma Dean Beaton, responsible for the Activity Fund and aids with attendance, Mrs. John Martin, Mr. Smith's secretary, and Mrs. Billie Crowder, in charge of attendance and is the Registrar. The East campus employees are: Mrs. Savannah Frazier, acting as secretary, Mrs. Irene Howard, the attendance clerk, keeps records of attendance and detention hall, and she is also the bookkeeper. Miss Nina Dollar works as the teacher's aid.

Cat Burglar Deals A Blow To EHS Library

Due to the fact that the campus was split, El Dorado High School has two libraries. The library was probably the area utilized most by students during their I.S. time. While studying in the library one could usually uncover the following information: who had a date for the dance, who the new steadies were, the latest gossip, the answers for sixth modules test, and occasionally some information for your research paper. The libraries were supervised by Mrs. Lillie M. Green, Mr. Marsh Lockhart, Mrs. Morene Smith, Mrs. Mary Haney, Mrs. Jean Ross, and members of the library club. This year the library was handicapped greatly by the absence of approximately three-hundred and fifty books. The library is of vital importance to the work and education of the EHS students.

English Teachers Take Time Out For Fun

English teachers along with their students have spent an entire year not only on literature, but also on grammar. The sophomore English classes started off the year with a review on grammar. Later, Sophomore students started reading short stories to learn about the meanings and structures. They read both Silas Marner and Julius Ceasar. The junior English classes studied grammar for the nine weeks and then they were introduced to the Colonial Period of America in literature. In the study of the Early National Period, students learned of such great men as Benjamin Franklin. Later during the year, junior English classes turned in a project paper rather than a book report for most of the teachers. Seniors began the year with the study of sentencepatterns, which were supposed to help them with their composition writings. During the study of the Anglo-Saxon Period of England, seniors could be seen reading and studying the different types of epics including the folk epic Beowulf. In the study of the Medieval Period, students learned about the powerful medieval church and chivalry, the flower of feudalism. While reading the Canterbury Tales, classes learned of Chaucer's famous character sketches. William Shakespeare's well-known tragedy, Hamlet, brought up many questions which aroused the student's attention. Milton's Paradise Lost gave way to many interesting questions about the Bible.

ABOVE ARE SHOWN the foreign language teachers for EHS, left to right: Mrs. Josephine Roscoe, French; Mrs. Connie Fernald, Spanish; and Mrs. Sallie M. Chambers, Latin. Below are, left to right: Mr. Stephen M. Murray, Journalism; Mrs. Betty Norman, Art; Mrs. Bene Gene Smith, Drama.

In this rapidly changing world where communications of all types are important for survival of the world, foreign languages, journalism, drama, art, and music have become indispensable in education. With this understanding, El Dorado High School has incorporated into its faculty some of the best-trained professionals in their fields — the fields of communications and the fine arts. In addition, with the realization of the importance of occupational endeavors, a skilled force has been training the students at East campus for jobs in automobile mechanics, home economics, and an emphasis has been placed in the guidance program to help the students in realizing their potentialities. El Dorado High School is a progressive school with progressive instruction.

MR. ROY BUTLER, Auto Mechanics, is shown standing behind Mrs. Irene Lee, Home Ec.; Mrs. V. M. Smith, Guidance; and Mrs. Harryette Yeates, Study Hall.

Fine Arts Sponsor Musical "Brigadoon"

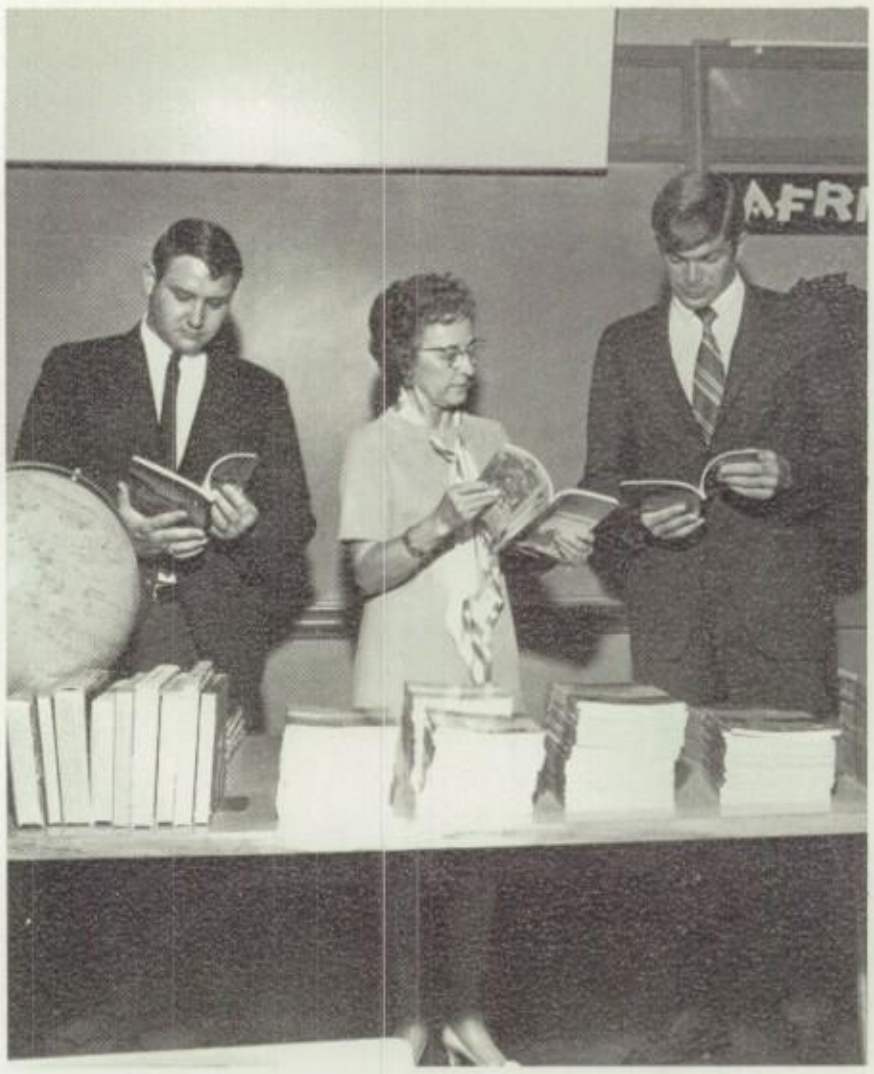
'BRIGADOON,' A musicial, was one of the many highlights of the year for the Fine Arts Department at El Dorado High School. The Fine Arts Department includes the bands, orchestra, and choral department. All three are headed by top professionals in the handling of instruments and instructing voice. The band during the year, received top state honors as did the choral department. In addition, the band participated in the halftime shows for football games, and performed concerts for students and others. The Choral Department was called upon at various times during the year, especially around Christmas time, to perform. Music is a universal language, and the Fine Arts Department at El Dorado High School helps hundreds of students learn the language.

THE FINE ARTS Department on East Campus is headed by Mrs. Georgia Williams, Chorus, and Mr. Morris J. Graham, Band. The West Campus Fine Arts consist of Mr. Johnny Mason (seated), Chorus; Mr. Robert Hooper, Band; Miss Mary Alice Colquitt, Band; Mr. Morris Graham, Band; Mr. James Foxx, Chorus; and Mr. Gerald Kiger, Orchestra.

Students Watch As History Is Made

In the 1969-70 school year a large majority of the classes at El Dorado High School belonged in the social studies department. West Campus had six teachers, Miss Janene McCrary, Mrs. Claire Whatley, Mrs. Marie Thomas, Mrs. Diamond Sewell, Mr. B. D. Ross, and Mr. Prince Holliday III, teaching such subjects as American history, Arkansas history, World history, Sociology, Economics, and Problems of Democracy. East Campus had Mrs. Sadie Weatherford, Mr. Henley, and Mr. Delone teaching fifteen classes of World history.

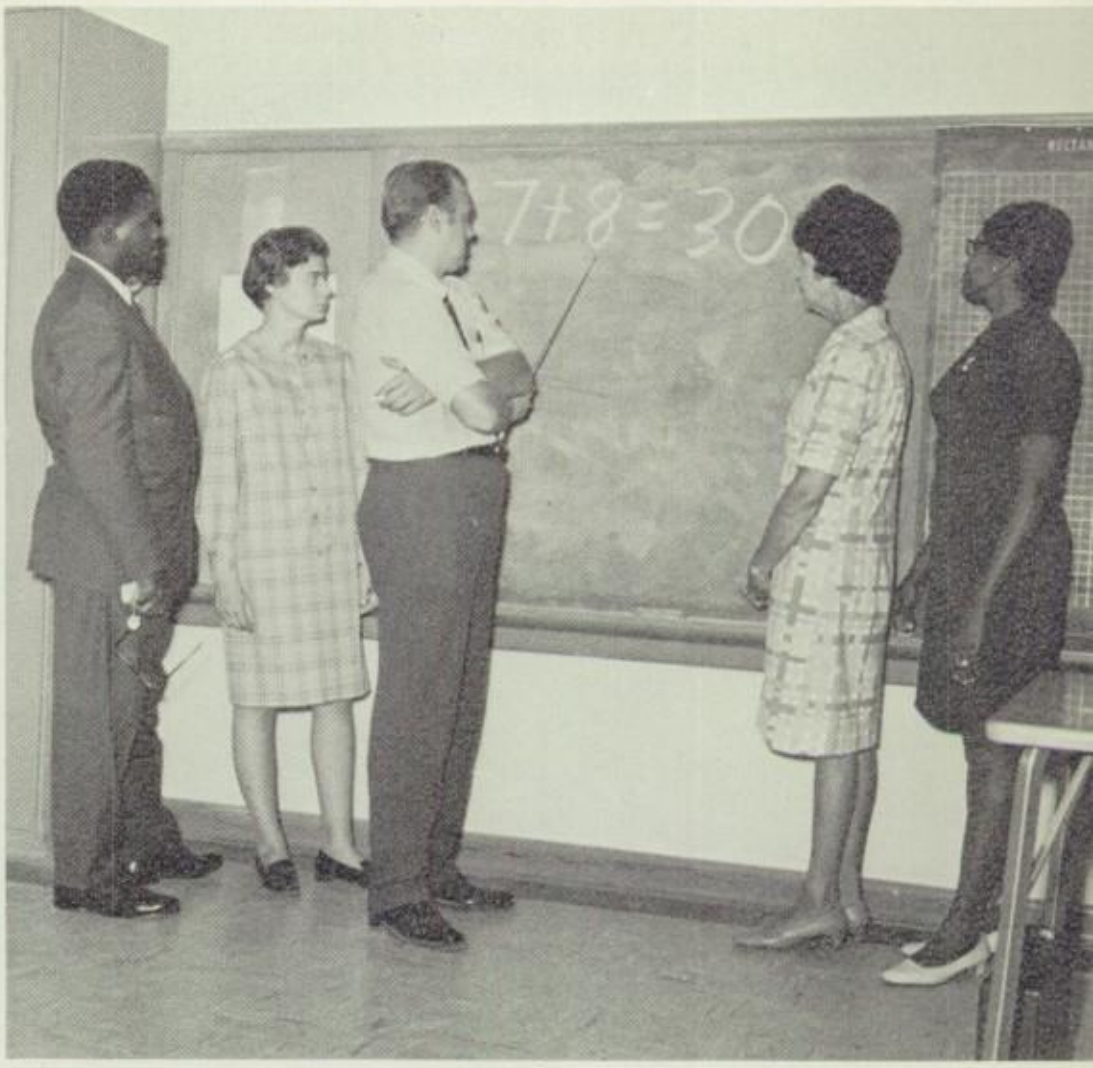
Each student enrolled in a social studies course was kept extremely busy with book reports, research papers, nine week's projects and the required daily assignments.



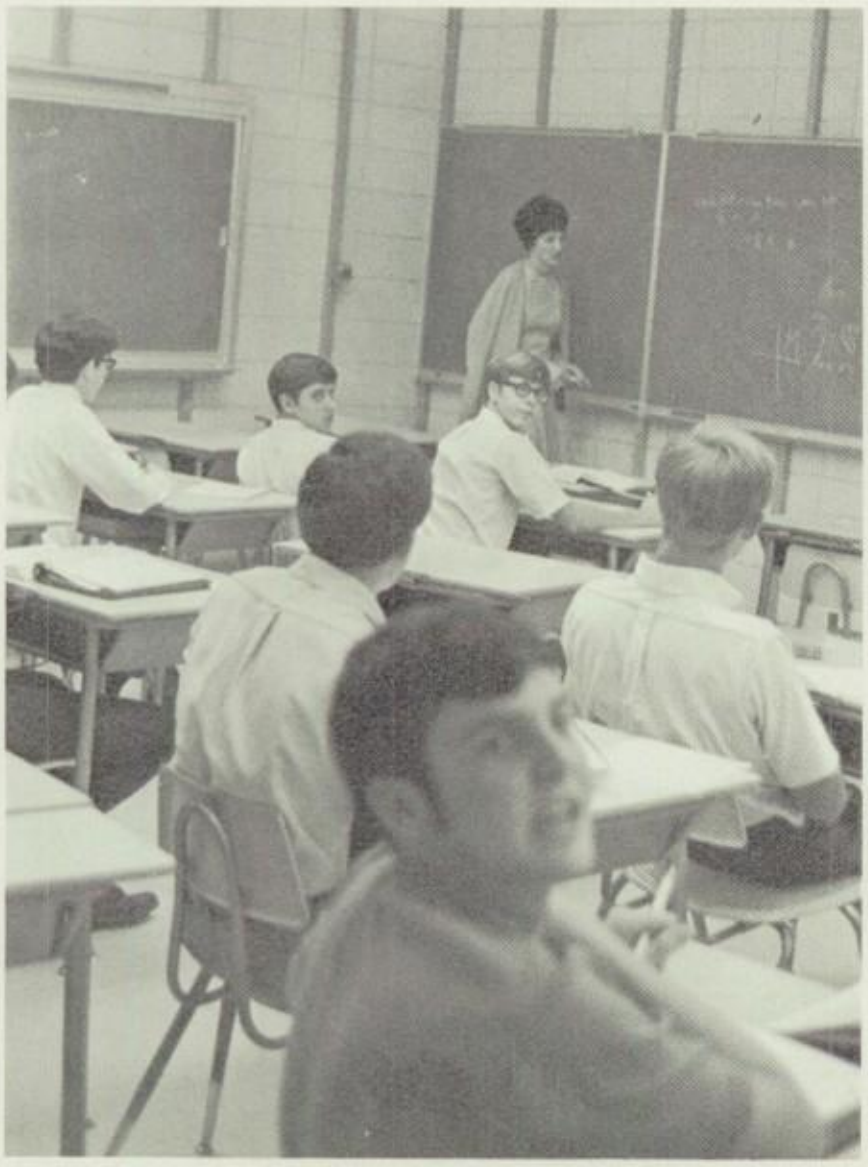
EAST CAMPUS HISTORY teachers are Mr. R. V. Henley, Mrs. Hugh Weatherford, and Mr. Stow DeLone.

WEST CAMPUS SOCIAL Studies instructors are: Mrs. Marie Thomas, American History; Miss Janene McCrary, American History; Mrs. Diamond Sewell, World History; Mrs. Claire Whatley, American History and Latin American History; Mr. Bobby Ross, Economics and American History; and Mr. Prince Holliday, Arkansas History and Sociology.

THE MATH DEPARTMENT on the West Campus consisted of Mrs. Sarah Overstreet, Plane Geometry, Alg. II, Trig.-A. Geom.; Mrs. Billie Jean Jones, Basic Math, Alg. II; Mr. F. H. Taweel, College Math, Trig-A. Geom., Alg. I; and Mr. James Goolsby, Alg. II, Physics.



MATH INSTRUCTORS ON the East Campus are: Mr. Albert Wilbert, Geometry, General Math; Miss Julia Hicks, Alg. IIA, Plane Geometry, Alg.I; Mr. Marvin Tanner, Alg.I, Plane Geometry; Mrs. Erna Wilson, Plane Geometry, Alg. I; and Mrs. Canal Benton, Alg. I, Plane Geometry.



Math Presents Many Puzzles, Few Solutions

The math teachers follow a track course of instruction, offering remedial, regular, and accelerated classes to students ready for those particular levels. Algebra II was offered to accelerated sophomores and to regular seniors and juniors. Trig-analytic geometry was offered to accelerated juniors and regular seniors, and college math to seniors only. The basic math classes worked with fractions and simple formulas dealing with volumes, areas, and perimeters. Number systems, squares and square roots, formulas, and simple equations were also worked with. Plane geometry students learned about real numbers, the property of numbers, parallel lines, triangles, polygons, squares and square roots. Algebra II students undertook complex numbers, quadratic functions, logarithms, exponents, systems of equations and properties of straight lines.

THE EAST CAMPUS Science instructors are: Mr. C. Pennington, Biology; Mr. R. Sweeney, Chemistry; Mr. J. Henderson, Biology; Mr. P. Shackleford, Biology & P. E.; and Mrs. E. Lancaster, Biology, Physiology; and Mr. Keith Ripley, Biology.

Science Department Discovers New Methods

The recent revolution in science education has been stimulated by the explosive advance of the twentieth century. This has influenced greatly science education in the high school. Because of this, teachers feel that the student should be acquainted with science as an activity rather than as a product. The biology, chemistry, physics, and the college level courses in biology and chemistry are taught in the laboratory classroom situation. Consequently, any concept that can be best taught through exploration on the part of students is also taught. The goal of the entire science department is to provide a plan by which the student may systematically through relatively simple and meaningful investigation build a conceptial understanding of biological patterns, structure of matter, the nature of energy and an understanding of the total whole of his environment. In the long run, the student develops a good grasp of the credibility of accepted theories and their interrelations and basic areas of study. Through these procedures students gain a scientific vocabulary and a practical knowledge of science and a sufficient background to continue at a higher level their professional training in the various science areas.

BIOLOGY IS A brain drain, but this is taking advantage of the poor, defenseless Sophomore.

WEST CAMPUS SCIENCE faculty consist of Mrs. Marion Cox, Chemistry; Mr. James Goolsby, Physics; and Mr. James E. Wilson, Chemistry.

Home Economics Spurs Excitement

Home Economics is one of the most useful courses a girl can take at EHS. Throughout the year, the students learn important skills that will enable them to run their household with pleasure and efficiency. The courses taken in home ec. are, money management, sewing, home furnishing, food management, and child care. Throughout the year, the girls learn the importance of learning and sharing their goals and ideals that they have set to pattern their lives. Home ec. is a very useful and rewarding subject, as well as one of enjoyment.

An important part of high school education for many students is vocational training. EHS is fortunate because it has a large and well developed vocational department. It has enough qualified instructors and co-ordinators to give the students sufficient guidance and on-the-job training. Typing, the most popular vocational subject for both boys and girls, emphasises accuracy and then speed. In the same part of the Vocational wing are bookkeeping, shorthand, and transcription classes. Opposite these classes are the more specialized training rooms of printing, electronics, and mechanical drawing. East Campus houses the mechanic shop, which also has students from the West Campus.

INSTRUCTORS IN MECHANICAL drawing, printing, co-op, electronics and shop are: Mr. James Bedell, Mr. James Short, Mr. Billy Taylor, Mr. Charles Davis, and Mr. J. B. Harrell.

Build Your Muscles Take Phys. Ed.

Atheletics actually began in early August for the boys in football. They practiced most of the day trying to get into shape for the season ahead. When school actually started these boys continued their activities while the P.E. classes performed many of the same exercises in touch football. When attention was turned to basketball the P.E. classes for both boys and girls began to play the game with great vigor. Tumbling and gymnastics were also popular activities. Volleyball, weight-lifting (boys) and the trampoline found many followers this year. Girls were very active in archery, baseball, and badminton. The year was ended for both boys and girls classes with

1970 Student Council Leaves Small Momentos

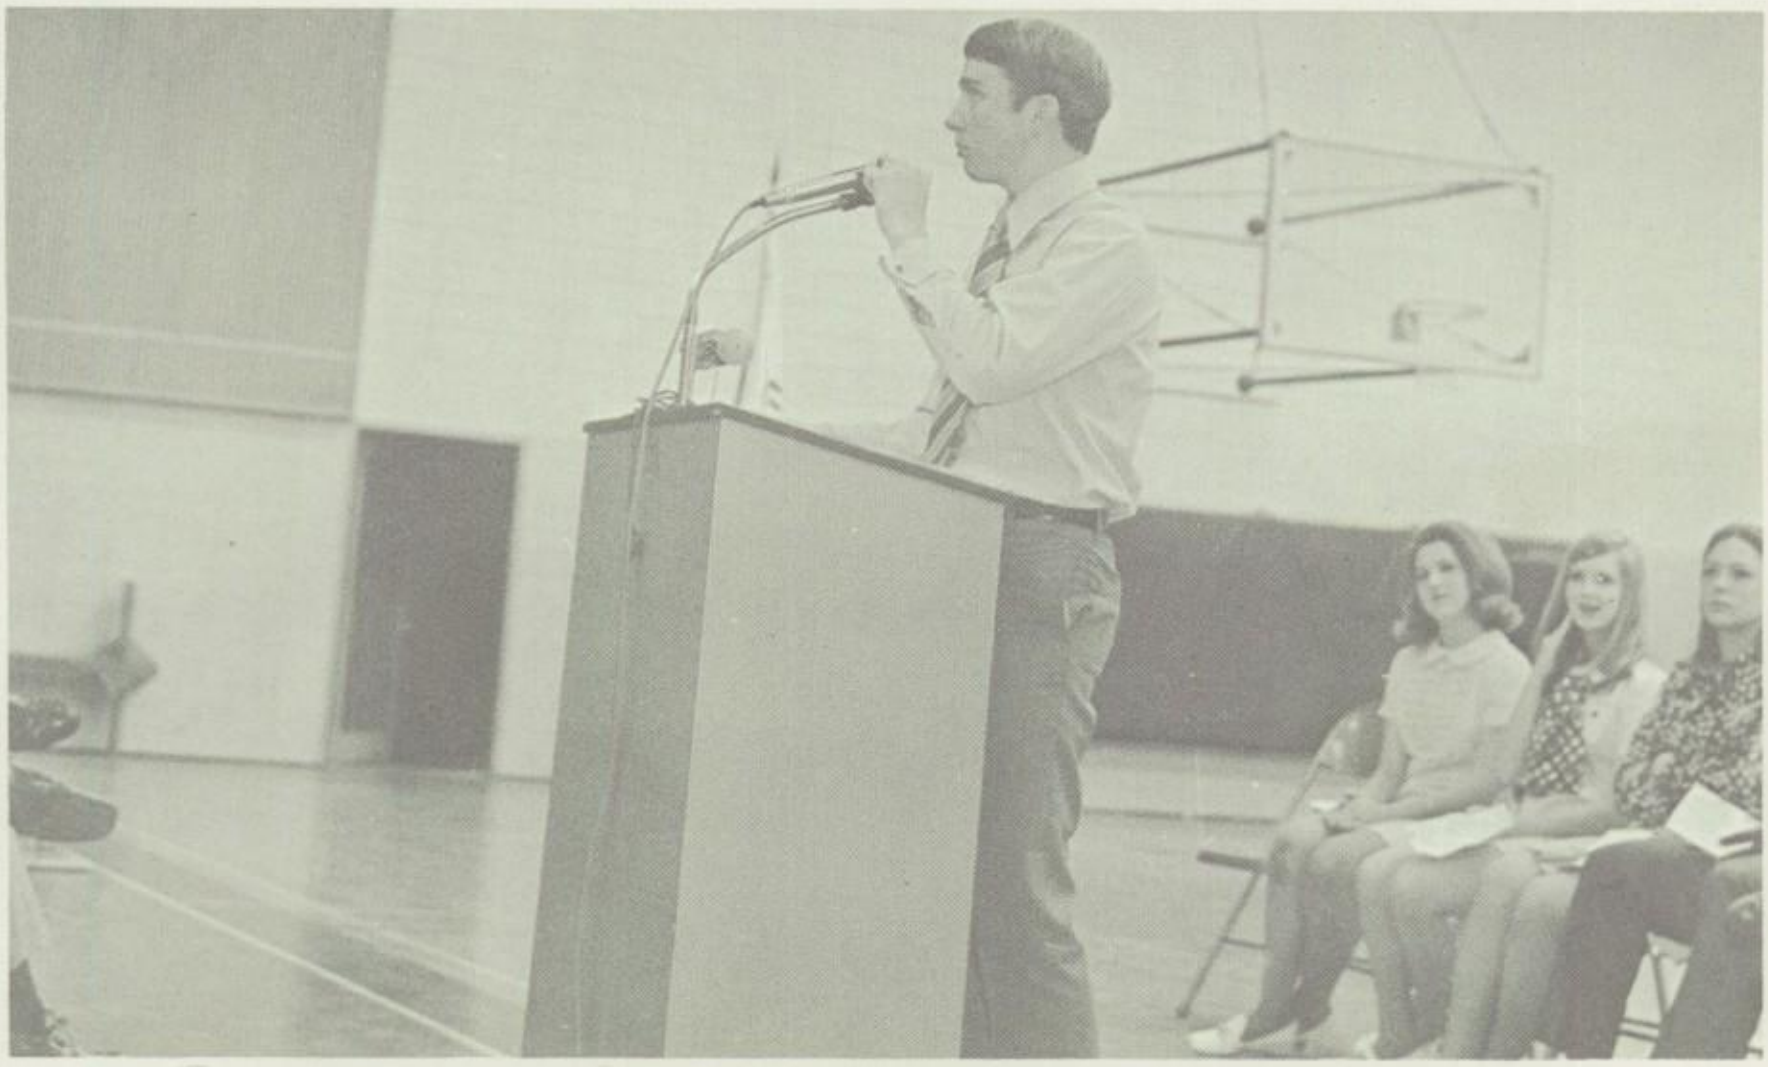
The West Campus Student Council, a co-operation between faculty and students which managed the overall affairs of the West Campus and assisted in the developement of the school, started the year by providing guides for the first P.T.A. meeting. The Council also furnished student Handbooks for all incoming students and scorebooks for the Wildcat football games.

The Council spearheaded the affairs of the sophomore and junior pictures and saw that the members of both classes had a picture for the annual.

At Christmas time, the Council honored West Campus teachers with a party at which gifts were presented to faculty and administrators. As usual, the Council sponsored two paid assemblies, "Java" and "Atilla Galamb", and plans were made for two more assemblies next year.

The management of the soft drink and candy machines was a job of the Council. This earned a small profit as did the pay phone that the Council had installed in the gym. The Council president presided over all assemblies and all assembly affairs were handled by the Council.

ATILLA GALAMB AND his father, Joseph, provide some of the comedy for the paid assembly sponsored by the Council.



PRESIDENT, BOB HALE, presides over the assembly in the election of new officers.

Student Council Presents Two Paid Assemblies

STUDENTS ENJOY VENDING machines supplied by the Student Council.

The East Campus Student Council was formed as a result of the split in the El Dorado High School Campus. Since it would have been impractical to transport sophomores every Monday morning from the East Campus to the Student Council meetings at the West Campus, the sophomores were granted a Student Council of their own to work in co-operation with the junior and senior council.

The Council had various projects throughout the 1969-1970 school year. For their first money-making project, they sponsored a basketball game between the Student Council girl representatives and the Home Economic girls. Also, as a money-making project, the East Council sold small gold pins saying "EHS" with "72" on a chain, and sponsored a talent show. The council gave the East Campus laminating supplies, bought window shades for the office, provided some new equipment for the East Campus Industrial Arts Program, and presented the teachers with apples and fruitcakes for Christmas.

THE 1969-70 STUDENT Council presented an American flag and an El Dorado High School flag to Mr. Smith in a special assembly at the beginning of the school year.

Girl State Delegates See Famed Star

"ONLY CERTAIN GIRLS go to Girls' State."

The 1969 Arkansas Girls' State included 17 delegates from EHS nominated by the members of the faculty, these girls were selected because of their leadership abilities. Girls' State is a week-long session held each summer at Camp Robinson in Little Rock. Sponsored by the American Legion Auxillary, its purpose is to educate its delgates in state and local politics. The one thousand girls who attended the 1969 session had speakers and carried out mock elections at the city, county and state levels. Some of the speakers were Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller, former governor Sid McMath, and leaders of both the Democratic and Republican parties of Arkansas. A special guest, not on the agenda, was Glen Campbell who was in Little Rock for the Premier of his movie, "True Grit". As a result of the elections, Connie Hoxie of Little Rock was elected governor. Two El Dorado girls, Mary Spencer and Cathy Jo Creed, were elected to state offices. A third student of EHS received the high honor of being chosen as a delegate to Girls' Nation held in Washington, D. C. Only two girls from each state are allowed to attend that session.

GIRLS SELECTED TO attend Girls' State were seated: Susan Walker, Laura Mason, Vicky Worsham, Debbie Ross, Damaris Keith, Marcia Adams, and Gayle Thompson; standing: Margaret Spencer, Paula Sewell, Mary Spencer, Joanna Risser, Gay Cole, Patricia Crawford, Winifred Ross, Michele Shoffner, Cathy Jo Creed, and Carol Sample.

Boys Learn Principles Of Good Government

BOYS CHOSEN TO attend Boys' State were, kneeling: Sonny Tomlinson, Chuck Butler, Peter Johnson, Ralph Rhodes, Robbie Bradley, Bayless Rowe, Sam Murray, Joe Templeton, Harold Smith, and Andy Adams; standing: Gary Jones, Denny Reedy, Richard Burns, Ricky Horne, Richard Nix, Chris Wadsworth, Dick James, Mark Webb, Randy Shankle, Bob Hale, Alan Soloman, and Mike Gray.

Approximately twenty-five members of the 1970 Senior Class attended the 29th Annual Boys' State at Camp Robinson in North Little Rock from May 31 to June 7, 1969. While there, the boys studied the government of Arkansas and took part in active campaigns to assume the actual reigns of governmental positions for one day. The campaigns resulted in the election of one EHS student, Bayless Rowe, to the office of State Auditor, and many others being elected to such positions as senators, representatives, and justices. Many lectures were presented to the boys which were highlighted by an address by Governor Winthrop Rockefeller. Recreational opportunities afforded the boys afternoon enjoyment. Perhaps the greatest accomplishment of Boys' State was the impression left with many of the boys of the evils as well as the good points of the American political system.

Thespians Present "Up the Down Staircase"

The title of this year's Thespian play was "Up the Down Staircase." Troupe 42, under the direction of Mrs. Bene Gene Smith, who is now in her twenty-eighth year as Thespian leader and speech teacher, worked very hard in presenting the play to the public and the student body. In order to become a Thespian, one must have earned a total of 150 points in four different fields: backstage, performance, leadership, and writing. When a Thespian has obtained 500 points or over, he becomes a bangled Thespian and receives special recognition on Honors Day. Thespian Troup 42 is a national service organization that was chartered in 1924 and is among 3,282 troupes in the United States. The play, which is always the main attraction of the year, took much time and preparation, not only the cast but the ushers, assistant directors, and the prop-men played a large part in the success. As a service to the public, Troup 42 also rang bells during Christmas for the Salvation Army. Students serving as officers thisyear included Julia Taylor, president Mary Spencer, vice president; Carolyn Forward, secretary; Damaris Keith, treasurer; Dick James, reporter.

OFFICERS FOR THESPIANS were, seated: Mary Spencer, Julia Taylor, Carolyn Forward. Standing: Damaris Keith, and Dick James.

CAROLYN FORWARD WAS named outstanding Thespian of the year, and Roy Campbell was given the Drama departments award for stage craft, and acting award.

MRS. BRENDA MILES was chosen Teacher of the Year by popular vote of the student body. She is shown here with Richard Nix and Coleman Brown.

NEW MEMBERS OF Thespians this year were, seated: Janice Turner, Christie Garner, Roy Campbell, Martha Taylor, Rick Palmer, and Sonny Tomlinson; 2nd row: David Ellen, Pam Van Allen, Jimmy Hall, Carol Jackson, Joyce Taylor, Debbie Smith, Rhonda Cottrell, David Tipton, and Bob Buckalew.

Fruitcakes Sold For First Time At EHS

The Junior Civitan Club was started by the Senior Civitan Club of El Dorado. The club was formed as a service club for the school and community. James B. Harrell and Pat Cauley, with the help of the school and Mr. Smith, formed the plans for this club. The members consist of juniors and seniors. In the future, sophomores will be able to join. The members were selected by the teachers last spring. Their summer activities included workng at the YWCA swimming pool and in the concession stand at the intrasquad game. Their biggest activity was their participation in the Civitan Auction last spring. In the future, members will find new programs with which to serve the school and community. They will also better organize the club.

EHS Scholastic Society— Incentive For Students

A total of 53 new members were initiated into the Scholastic Society in an assembly held March 3 at East Campus. During the assembly, new members were given a ribbon which was later replaced by a Scholastic Society pin. To be in the Scholastic Society students must maintain a 3.5 grade average throughout grades nine through twelve. The two year members received a chain to go on their pins and the three year members wore gold tassels at graduation exercises. There were thirty wearers of the gold and from these this year the valedictorian and salutorian came.

Horizon Club Girls Host Formal At Tac House To Celebrate The Christmas Season

Highlighting the 1969-70 year for Senior High Horizon Club members was the annual Christmas formal held December 20 at the TAC House. Bill Ray and the Show Band Royale provided the music. The various Horizon Club groups participate in money making projects. Among these are garage sales, car washes, rumage sales, and candy sales. During the candy sale, which took place in February, Horizon Club members stood on the corners downtown to sell their Russel Stover Candy. Senior high members also spend a great deal of their time in meetings, gatherings, lectures, and work projects. During the Christmas and Thanksgiving holidays, many baskets for the needy were provided by the different groups and the Christmas tree at the nursing home was decorated. Along with a lot of work the Campfire Girls have fun too! Over-nights at Jacala, bunking parties at the Campfire house and monthly dinners make up a few of these activities.

E Club Consists Of Lettermen

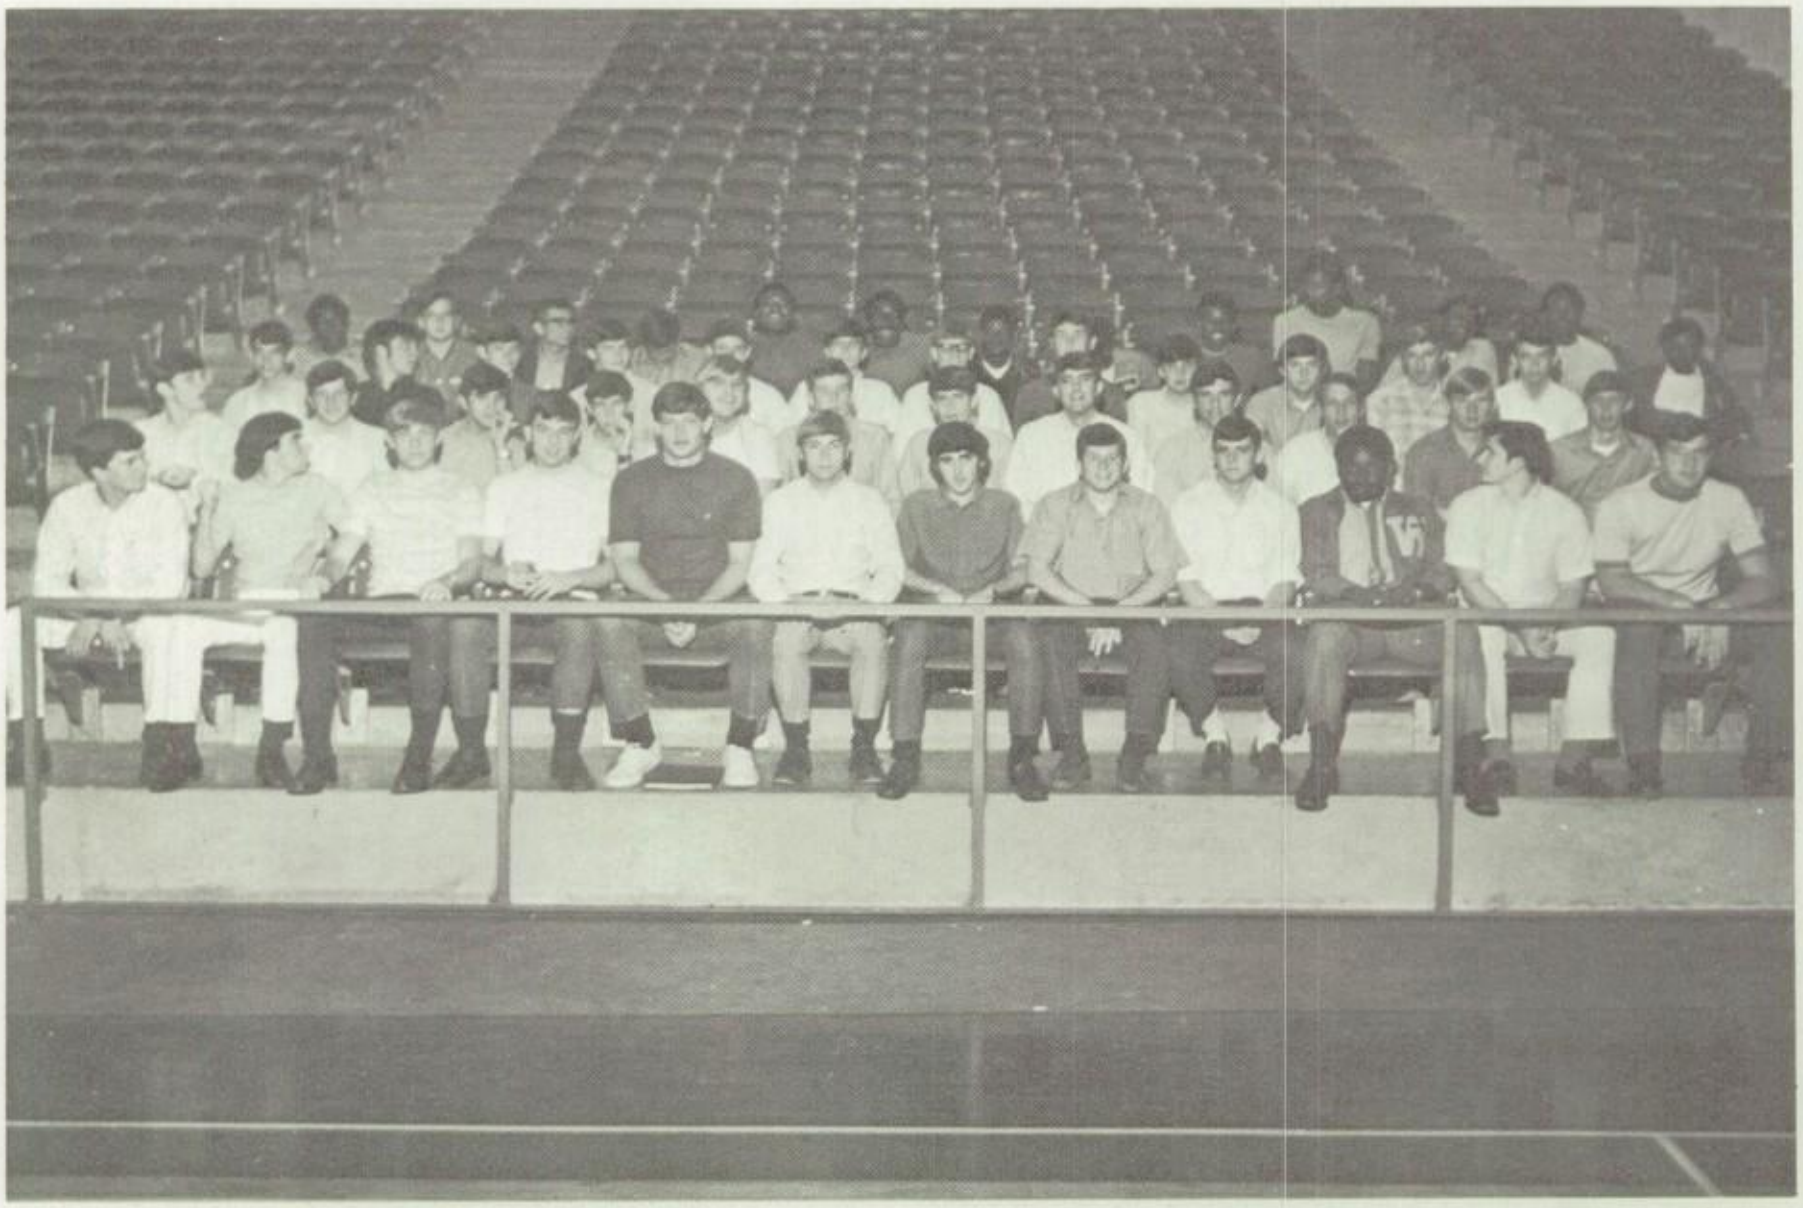
The E Club was organized in 1951 to promote sports at El Dorado High School. Any person lettering in any sport at EHS, such as football, basketball, track, tennis, or golf, automatically becomes a member. The club carries on various activities during the year, such as serving at the concession stand during basketball games, setting training rules for the EHS athletes, and unloading Christmas trees for the Kiwanis Club. The E Club will also elect football, basketball, track, golf, and tennis representatives to act as speakers for each individual sport. This will be done at the beginning of the 1970-71 school year by the lettermen from each respective sport. Late in May, they held their annual banquet. This was the final event for the 1970 E Club.



MEMBERS OF THE E Club are, left to right, 1st row: C. Butler, B. Rowe, H. Smith, P. McKinney, T. Ross, R. Shankle, C. Brown, R. Steaurt, R. Atkins, A. Jones, J. Sewell, J. Feimster, 2nd row: J. DECA Wins Awards In State Contests

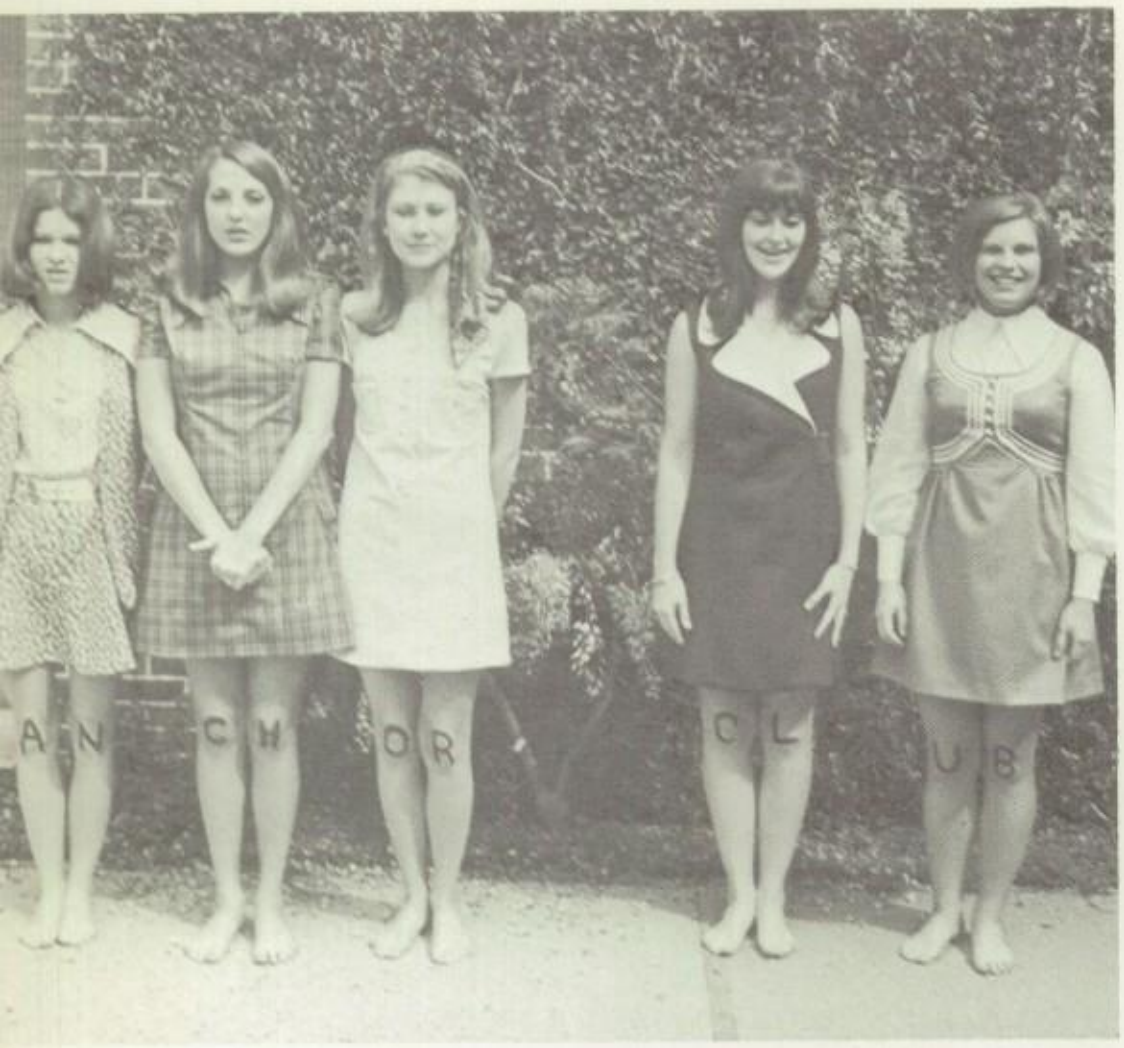
The Distributive Education Clubs of America members are composed of students from Distributive Education or Diversified occupation classes. This is the second year the DECA organization has been held on the El Dorado High School Campus. Each year several of the members go to the state convention in Little Rock. The members of the club who engaged in the contests, were rewarded with prizes in such categories as job interview. DECA Clubs warrant a national publication, the Distributor. The magazine contains many articles concerning occupations and vocations along with news from different clubs around the nation.

MEMBERS OF DECA are, seated: Linda Williams, Becky Bays, Janice Alderson, and Carol Jackson, standing are: Vicki Stokes, Kay Chearwood, and Kendall White.

MEMBERS OF 1969-70 Deca are, seated: Glenn Davis, Max Risinger, Doug Brown, Willie Edwards, Joe Templeton, Kendall White, Mary Humphries, and Jane Karch, standing: Floyd Willis, Billy Kersh, Glenn Tullis and Sherry Hawkins.

Anchor Club Posts Eventful Year

The 1969-70 Anchor Club calendar was filled with numerous school and community projects, finances, and individual services. The forty-eight members began their year by working at the Fine Arts Center as ushers and box office attendants. They also served coffee at the performances. During the month of September, the girls held new member installation and spent several Saturdays collecting money for Cystic Fibrosis. During football and basketball season the girls made pep signs to help support the Wildcats. October activities included making and entering a float that won first place in the Homecoming parade. For Thanksgiving the girls collected food for a needy family. In the Christmas spirit they decorated the tree in the Student Council at West Campus. During January they collected for TB and in February they collected for the Heart Fund. The year was climaxed with the girls' formal dance which was held at the Country Club.



OFFICERS FOR ANCHOR Club this year were: Martha Murphy, president; Joanna Risser, vice president; Winifred Ross, secretary; Paula Sewell, treasurer; and Mary Spencer, parliamentarian.

Engineers Club Takes Field Trip To Gray Dam; Learning Enjoying

How can anyone be anything but enthusiastic about the Engineers Club? The members of the Engineers Club are enthusiastic — and why not? They are learning, under the supervision of Miss Marion Cox, about growing and fascinating fields of endeavor which include science and engineering — vitally important and interesting work in a world geared to scientific and technilogical advances. Many of the members of the Engineers Club plan to go into the field of engineering or a science related field. Interests in the club include construction engineering and the study of minerals and rock specimens. Last year the members of the club collected minerals native to Arkansas and placed them in the arboretum collection. The Engineers Club also took a field trip this year under the supervision of Miss Cox and Mr. James Goolsby.

Library Clubbers Serve Whole School

The Library Club is a service organization to students and teachers that is primarily concerned with keeping up the library. Members of the club include all of the students who work in the library during their independent study time. Monday during activity period is the designated time for this club to hold its meetings and discuss problems in the routine of the library. This is also used to keep the magazines, films, cards, shelves, and lists straight, and assist teachers with audio-visual equipment. As in previous years the members held their annual Christmas party.

A "C" average is required for membership and at least five modules a week be devoted to work in the library. Mrs. Morene Smith is sponsor of this club.

GRA Promotes Fitness, Fun

The Girls Recreation Association is a club to which all members of the girls physical education classes belong. Members worked to promote interest in recreation and to provide opportunities for participation in various reecreational activities. Throughout the year, the girls play matches in tennis, basketball, volleyball, badminton, and baseball. Sports Day was held in Magnolia at Southern State College, in April. This is an annual event for teams from all over the state, who compete for top honors. Various sports are played, such as volleyball, ping pong, tennis and badminton. The winners are determined by round-robin tournaments. Also, the EHS Gymnastic Team traveled to LRU in Little Rock, to enter in state competition. Selling candy was the most profitable of the GRA's money-making projects. They sold boxes of assorted chocolates. During Honor's Day Assembly, Carol Jackson received an award for having earned the most GRA points. Diane Cribb was named Girl of the Year.

Y-Teens Carry Out Theme Of 'Anchors Away'

Y-TEEN OFFICERS ARE: Carolyn Forward, Mary Spencer, Claudia Church, Julie Evers, Margaret Spencer, and Carol Davidson.

The Thanksgiving assembly at El Dorado High School West Campus for the student body, was presented by members of the senior high Y-Teens, a community service club. The main services of the club this year were, ringing bells for the Salvation Army during the Christmas season, ringing door bells for the purpose of thanking those who contributed to the United Campaign Fund, "Little Miss Y-Teen" party given at Christmas for six underprivileged children, at which each child received three useful gifts from the members, and helping with the clean-up campaign. Other activities engaged in by the girls were karate lessons that were taught by Johnny Lloyd and Vandy Cameron at the YWCA, the annual State Y-Teen Convention which was held in Texarkana on March 21 and 22, the annual Mother-Daughter Banquet where new officers for the upcoming school year were installed, and a variety of sales to make money for a party given in honor of the graduating senior members in April. The Y-Teens this year owe a special thanks to Mrs. Helen Gordon, executive director of the YWCA, Mrs. George Forward, Mrs. James Spencer Jr., and Mrs. F. Owen, who served as sponsors.

EHS Cheerleaders Are Full of Spirit

El Dorado High School cheerleaders began their active year by attending cheerleader camp at SMU in Dallas, Tex. During their week at camp, they learned new cheers, chants, and skits to arouse the EHS spirit. In competition, the girls received a ribbon for excellent, two ribbons for outstanding, and one for honorable mention. Through their endless work of washing cars, and selling license plates and decals, the cheerleaders were able to purchase new skirts and sweaters, and attend all the out-of-town games. The main objective of the 1969-70 cheerleaders was to keep the walls of EHS ringing with spirit for the cats. To obtain their goal, the cheerleaders plastered the school with signs for every game, made run-throughs for each game, held assemblies on the square, and cheered the enthusiastic fans during pep-assemblies and games.

El Dorado Pepettes Back The Wildcats

One hundred junior and senior pepettes lended support to the Wildcats during the 1969-70 school year. The pepettes along with the band and cheerleaders provided the spirit needed to support the mighty Wildcat team. Pepette practice began the last two weeks of August. New members were taught cheers and old members refreshed their memory.

Pepettes cheered at all home games and were able to travel to three out-of-town football games, two in Little Rock and one in Pine Bluff. Before the games, the pepettes, band, and cheerleaders led the boosters in a pregame pep rally. Members of the squad added to the spirit by decorating the goal posts for the visiting teams before each game. At the closing of football season the pepettes performed a field routine with the EHS marching band. To "America the Beautiful". members of band and pepettes formed a waving American flag and from this formation walked into a Wildcat head as the band played the fight song. During basketball, they cheered at home games, and attended several out-of-town games.

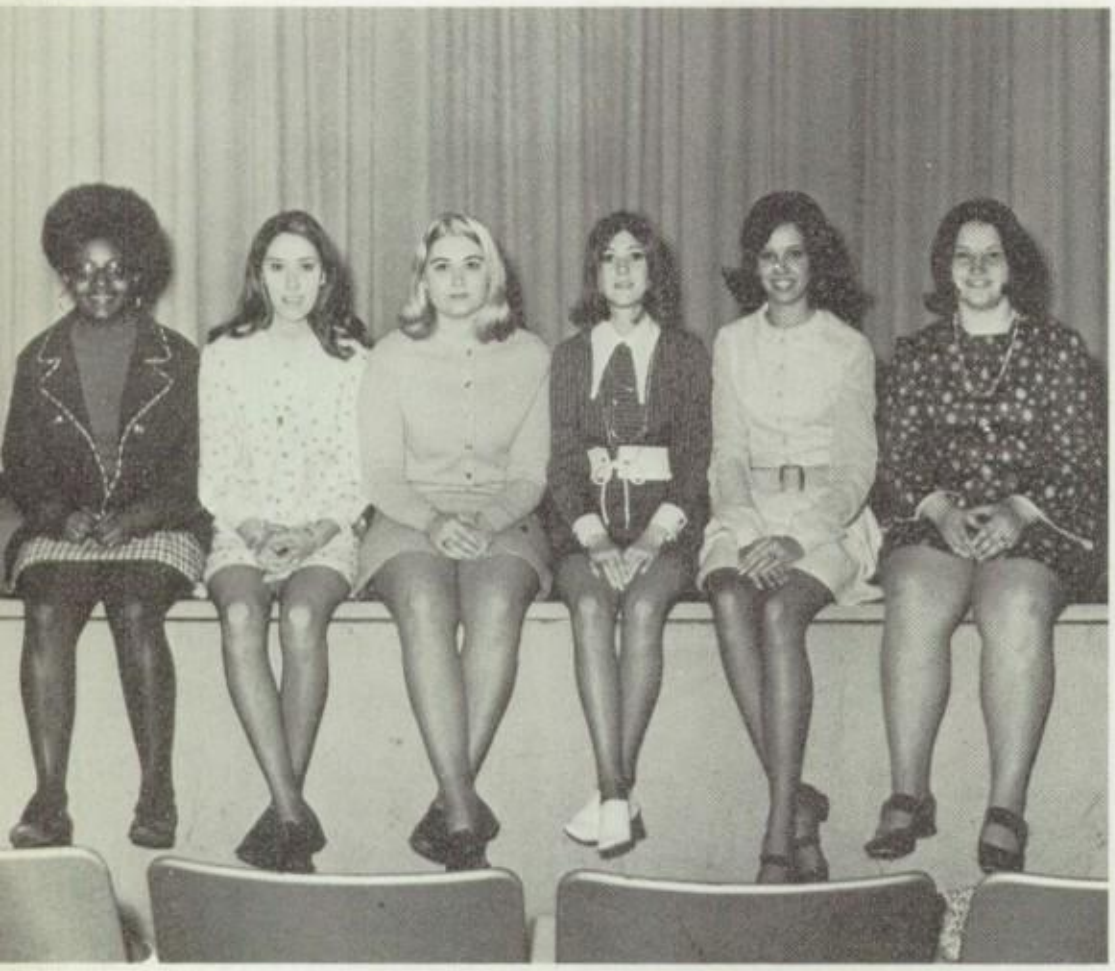
FHA Members Will Better The Homes Of Tomorrow



OFFICERS OF FHA are: Betty Kemp, Cindy Jennings, Brenda Hill, Vicky Worsham, Patricia Crawford, and Carol Jackson.

Opening their year with an installation service, the Future Homemakers of America installed their officers for the coming year. Those girls installed included Patricia Crawford, Brenda Hill, Sylvia Shofner, Cindy Jennings, Betty Kemp, Carol Jackson, Kathy Cook, and Vicky Worsham. The Future Homemakers of America Club is open to any girl who is taking a course in Home Economics. The purpose of the club is to show the girls how to make a better tomorrow today. Again this year the FHA entered a prize-winning exhibit in the Union County Fair. The theme of the exhibit was "Chart Your Future With the Stars". Throughout the year the FHA participated in various activities around the school and in the community.

Some of the projects they participated in included preparing the pies for the pie-throw that was held on Sadie Hawkins Day and also making turkey favors for the Thanksgiving food trays at Hudson Memorial Nursing Home. In March, seventeen girls were chosen to go to Little Rock to the State Future Homemakers of America Convention. These seventeen girls included the officers and nine of the most active girls in the club. The girls were chosen from their participation in the various activities throughout the year. The FHA also participated in the Federation Day held in Magnolia.

Denny Reedy Is 1969-70 Drum Major

Under the direction of Mr. Robert Hooper, performances were given by the band at football games, pep assemblies, basketball games, and concerts. Denny Reedy was the 1969-70 Wildcat drum major.

Beginning August 11, for 2 hours each day, students could be practicing half time shows on the EHS parking lot.

During the football season, the band consisted of an East Campus and a West Campus band: the East Campus band consisting of about 40 sophomores, and the West Campus band consisting of about 70 students.

After the football season, the band was divided into three bands which consisted of an East Campus band, a West Campus band, and a Symphonic band.

The band made two out-of-town trips during the football season to Little Rock this year. The pep band, consisting mainly of seniors, rode school buses to other games, and kept the spirit up by playing at all home conference basketball games. To pay for these trips, the members sold all-purpose cleaner, and the band parents ran the concession stand at home football games.

The band held several concerts including a combined concert February 27 with the Barton and Rogers Junior High School Bands, and a high school band concert May 1. They also attended a Region Band Festival March 13-14 in Camden, and a State Band Festival April 16-18 in Hot Springs.

DeMolay Builds The Leaders of Tomorrow

On March 18, 1314, King Phillip burned Jacques DeMolay at the stake, as a martyr to loyalty and toleration. Today, DeMolay members strive to carry on the ideals for which DeMolay gave his life. The DeMolay Movement was founded in 1919 by the late Frank S. Land, in Kansas City, Mo. The first group consisted of nine high school boys. Today, nearly three million men have passed through the portals of DeMolay and knelt at its altar. The DeMolay organization has become a leading producer of great leaders in every field of endeavor. Many of these young men of former years have gone on to distinguished careers in business, government service, the military, entertainment, and athletics. The goal of the international youth organization is building better citizens out of teenage boys. The Order of DeMolay's slogan is "Young Men on the Go."

OFFICERS OF THE 1969-70 DeMolay are Raymon Harvey, Mark Webb, and Bill Harper.

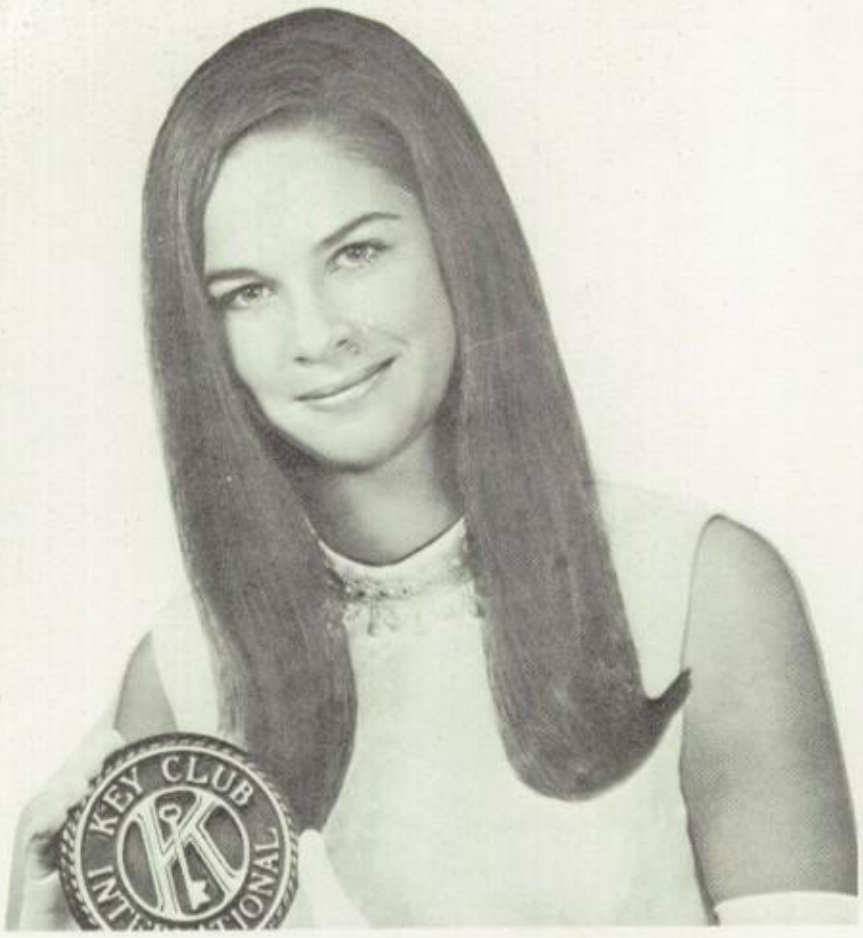
Key Club Choses All-round Sweetheart



KEY CLUB SWEETHEART
Elisabeth Woods

This year the EHS Key Club served both the school and community through participation in its various projects. Starting in September, junior and sophomore members assisted the athletic department by ushering at football games while senior members fired their famous cannon, "Miss Fire", upon the completion of a Wildcat score. In November, Key Club members helped the Kiwanis Club in their annual Pancake Festival. In December the Key Club prepared for the new year with the sale of their popular calendars featuring calendar girls from the sophomore, junior and senior classes. The Key Club honored basketball sweetheart, Elizabeth Woods, with a dance in February with music by the "Uniques." The 1969-1970 Key Club year was highlighted in April at the Spring Banquet as the new officers took over their offices.

Choral Department Performs For Many

MR. FOXX INSPIRES group.

Two festivals, two concerts, All-State and "Brigadoon" were among the many activities the choral department of El Dorado High School has been involved with this past year. Oratorio and Choraliers, the two select mixed choirs, have been exceedingly busy. Both groups have participated in numerous choral assemblies and have also provided the entertainment for homecoming, baccalaureate and commencement. Many organizations and clubs have asked for these two choirs to provide the entertainment at their club meetings. All choirs of EHS perform at both the Christmas and spring concerts. Each choir sings three or four songs with Oratorio usually closing the program. Tickets are sold by students and at the door. Halloween candy was sold by the members of the choirs at EHS at $1.00 per sack of candy. Money was used to buy supplies for the department. Members of all the EHS choirs also participated in the musical "Brigadoon". Long hours and much energy turned the show into a fantastic musical.

FTA Lists Numerous Group Projects

Future Teachers of America was kept busy this past year. Every weekday morning school supplies were sold in the Student Center from 8:00 a.m. through homeroom. During football season and the early part of basketball season, purple pom-poms were sold by the organization. American Education Week was an important event for FTA. Publicity for the week was provided in the newspapers, over radio and television and in the churches with special advertisements by businesses uptown. FTA members gave a party honoring the faculty with the members taking the teacher's place in the classroom. The day before Christmas vacation, FTA sponsored the annual Christmas party for the teachers with members once again keeping classes so the teachers might attend. To earn extra money for the organization's activities cookies were sold each morning before school in the Student Center for a penny a piece. Each member made her own cookies and either sold the cookies or turned in money for the amount she would have sold.

OFFICERS FOR FTA were Cindy Jennings, president; Frances Scott, vice president; Carol Jackson, secretary; and Janice Jordan, treasurer.

Members Of VICA Prepare For Future

RANDY SANDERS AND Kenny Allen won second and third places, respectively, in the State VICA Contest.

The Vocational Industrial Clubs of America and the Distributive Education Clubs of America are very outstanding on the El Dorado High School campus. The members of VICA are all participants in the co-operative training program and must maintain at least a "C" average. The members of VICA are junior and senior students who are preparing themselves for a vocation after graduation from high school. Members of the organization work for one half day and attend classes one half day. At the state leadership conference in Little Rock, several members took top honors. Randy Sanders and Kenny Allen took second and third places in the printing category. Others fields of competition were: cosmetology, auto mechanics, spelling, hair styling, advertising, and window display. VICA members were required to write a paper on the development of the Co-op program in the nation, the state of Arkansas, and El Dorado. This was required so the student would acquire a greater knowledge of the co-op program and its various branches.

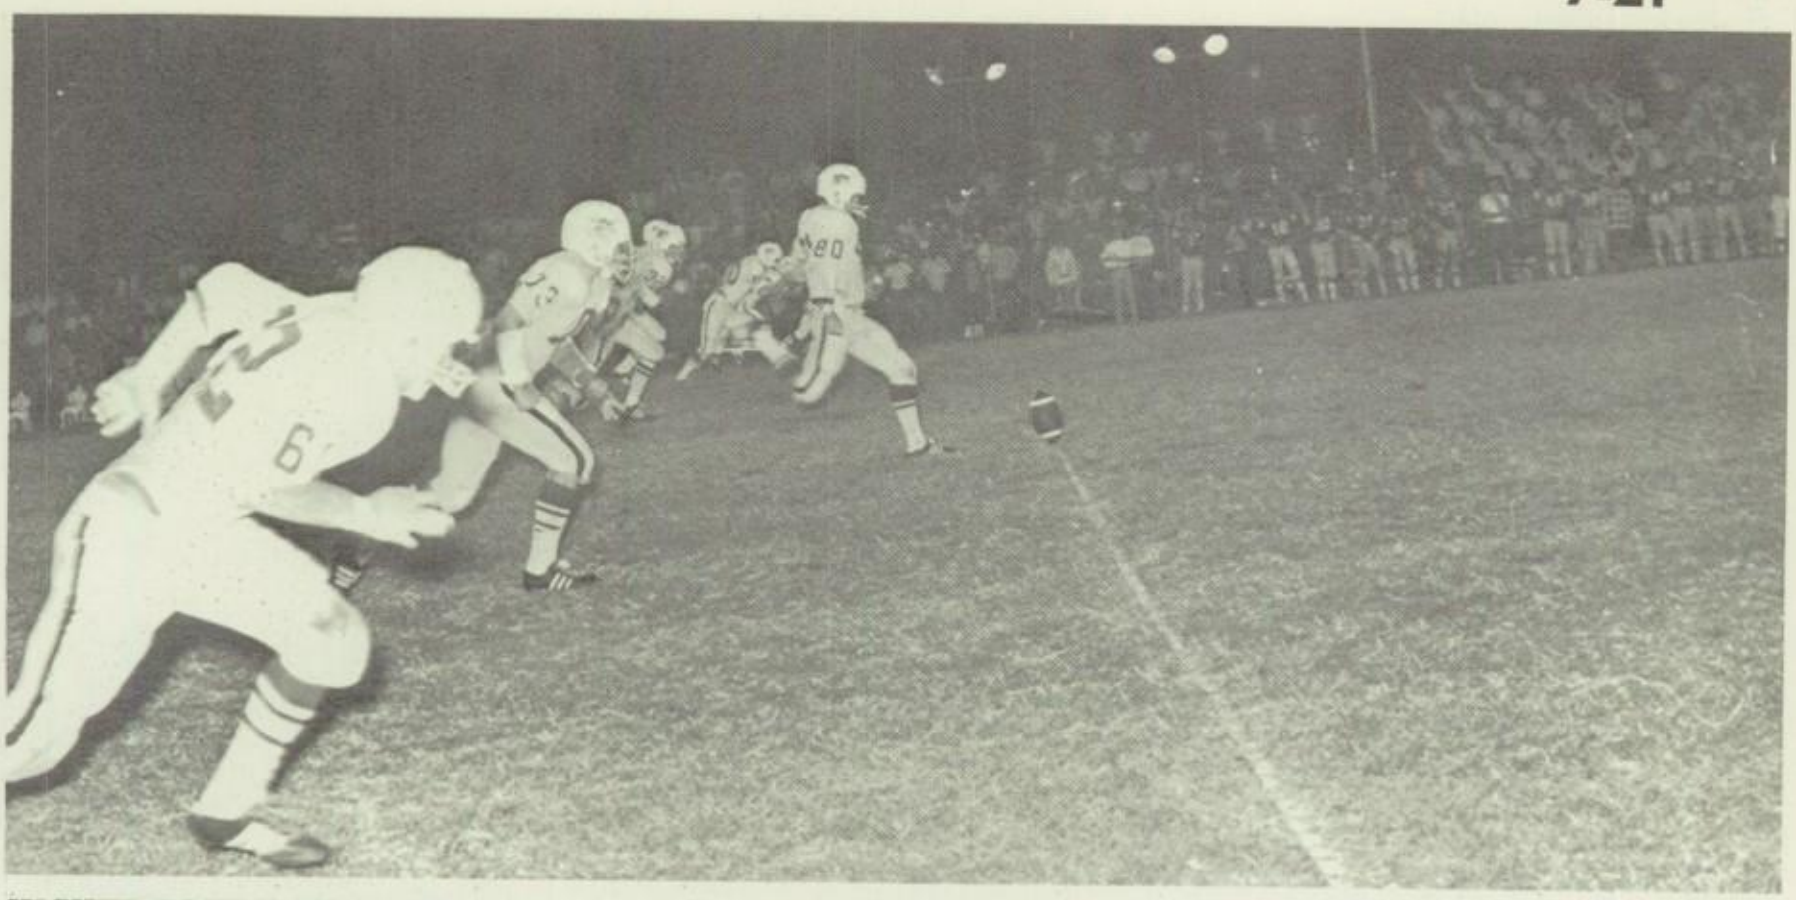
Wildcats Open Season With Victory

PLAYER-OF-THE-WEEK
SAM MURRAY

THE EL DORADO Wildcats opened their season with a 28-6 win over Northeast Arkansas power — the Forrest City Mustangs. El Dorado's offensive running and blocking and the wall-like defensive line and quick defensive backs overcame the Mustangs, giving promise to a tough season ahead.

Fort Smith

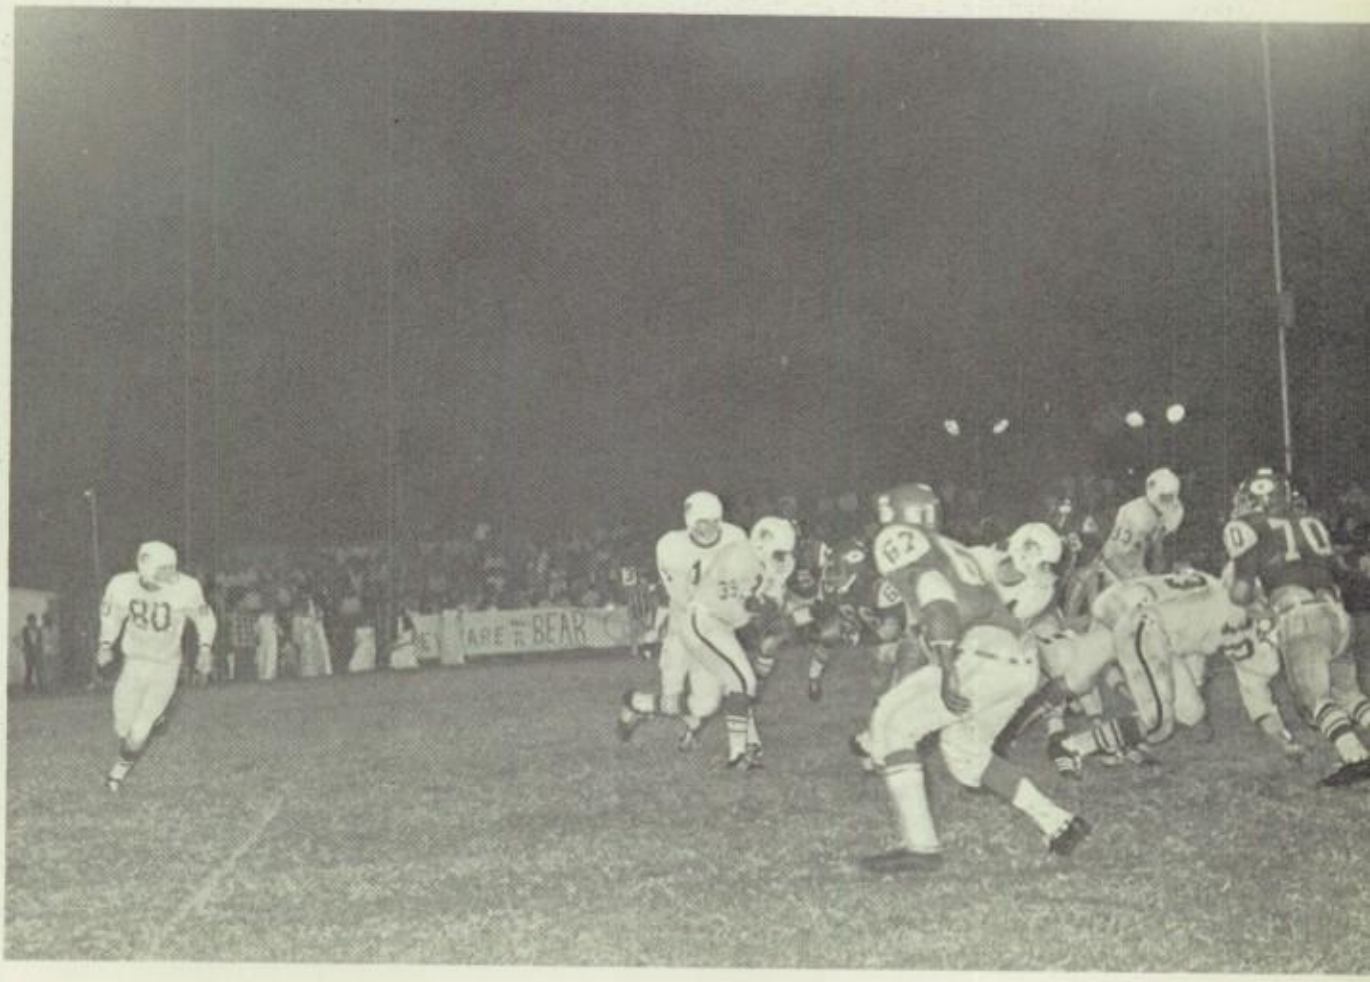
7-21



KICKER RANDY SHANKLE boots the ball to the Powerful Fort Smith Northside Grizzlies. The Grizzlies were top ranked in the state, but their ranking was given a scare in the 21-7 game. This was El Dorado's first of three losses for the season.

Top-Ranked Grizzlies Overpower El Dorado

PLAYER-OF-THE-WEEK
JOHNNY ELKINS



Little Rock McClellan

0-0

THIS PLAY WITH a Wildcat being stopped with no gain is indicative of the way the game went in a deadlock with neither team scoring. Both McClellan and El Dorado butted heads for four quarters without a score, both boasting tough defenses.

Game Is Defensive As Teams Deadlock

PLAYER-OF-THE-WEEK
TOMMY LANCASTER

BREAKING THROUGH THE McClellan line for short yardage, El Dorado failed to make the decisive break for a touchdown to break the 0-0 deadlock.

North Little Rock

Wildcats Win By 11 Over State Power

PLAYER-OF-THE-WEEK
SCOTT GAGE

NORTH LITTLE ROCK players give chase to a Wildcat scamperer. NLR's efforts proved fruitless, however, proven by a 21-10 win by El Dorado.

FULLBACK ANTHONY JONES powers over a mass of El Dorado blockers and North Little Rock defensive men toward the goal line. El Dorado captured the win in the game. North Little Rock continued their season by being one of the top-rated teams in the state.

'60 Second Fantasy' Is Theme

"60 Second Fantasy" was the theme for the 1969 EHS Homecoming. As the rain of the day shattered our thoughts of a sunny day, it failed to dampen our 'Shinning Spirit' as loud yells could be heard from the exuberent assembly in which Winifred and her court were presented. The parade was better than ever with the Anchor Club girls walking off with first place. Our great Homecoming spirit failed to win us the game, but made way for the dance afterwards with "The Merging Traffic" playing. As the day slowly ended, SENIORS were saddened with the thought of their last Homecoming, while juniors and sophomores had thoughts of ones to come. The day came to an end but the fantasies of the year will long be remembered in our hearts.

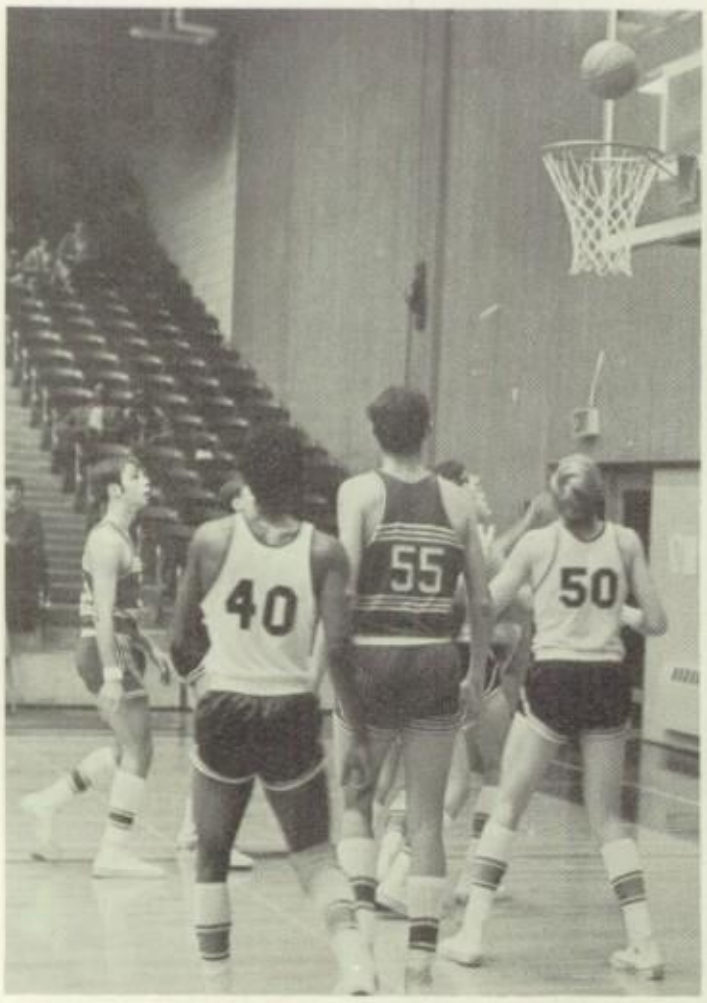
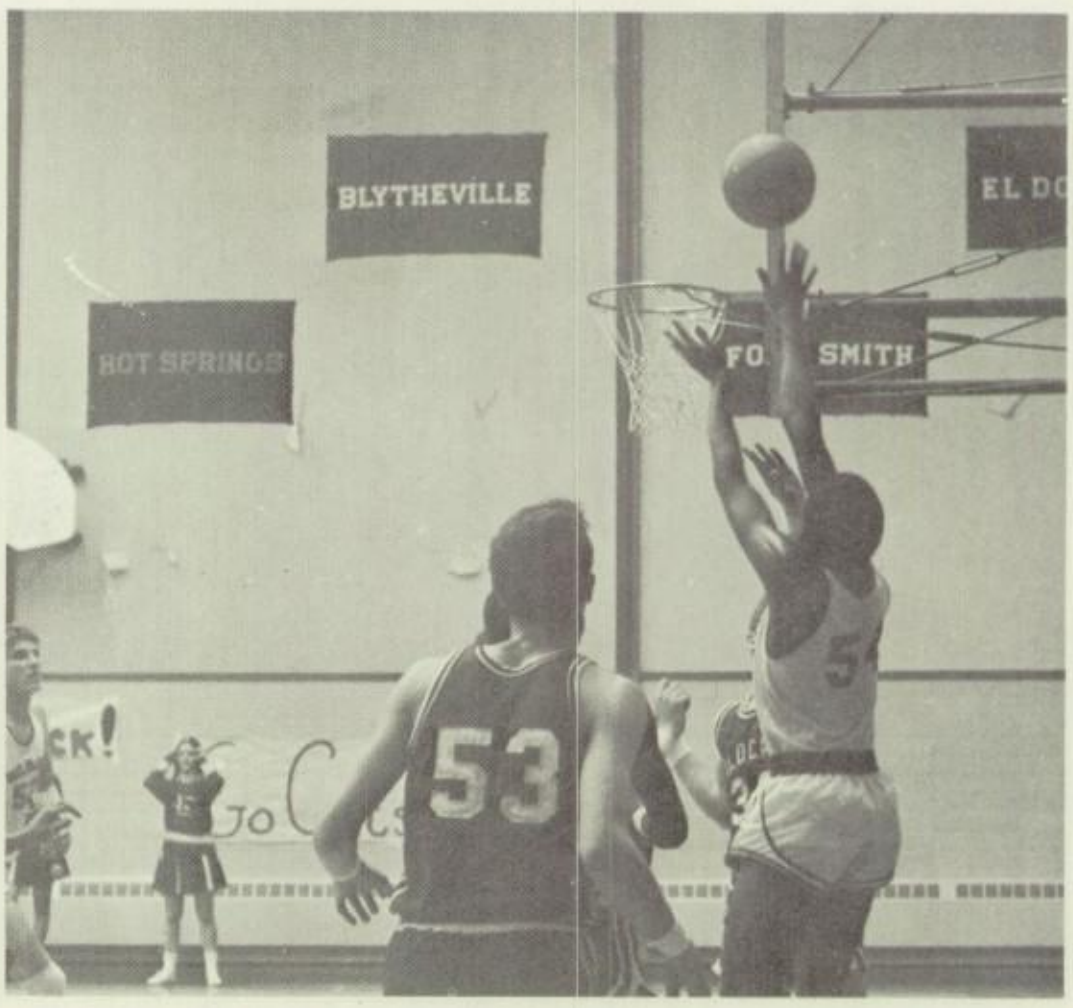
SENIOR SCOTT GAGE goes up for a two point attempt in a basketball game played this past season at the El Dorado High School Gymnasium. Gage was one of the top men on the team this past season.

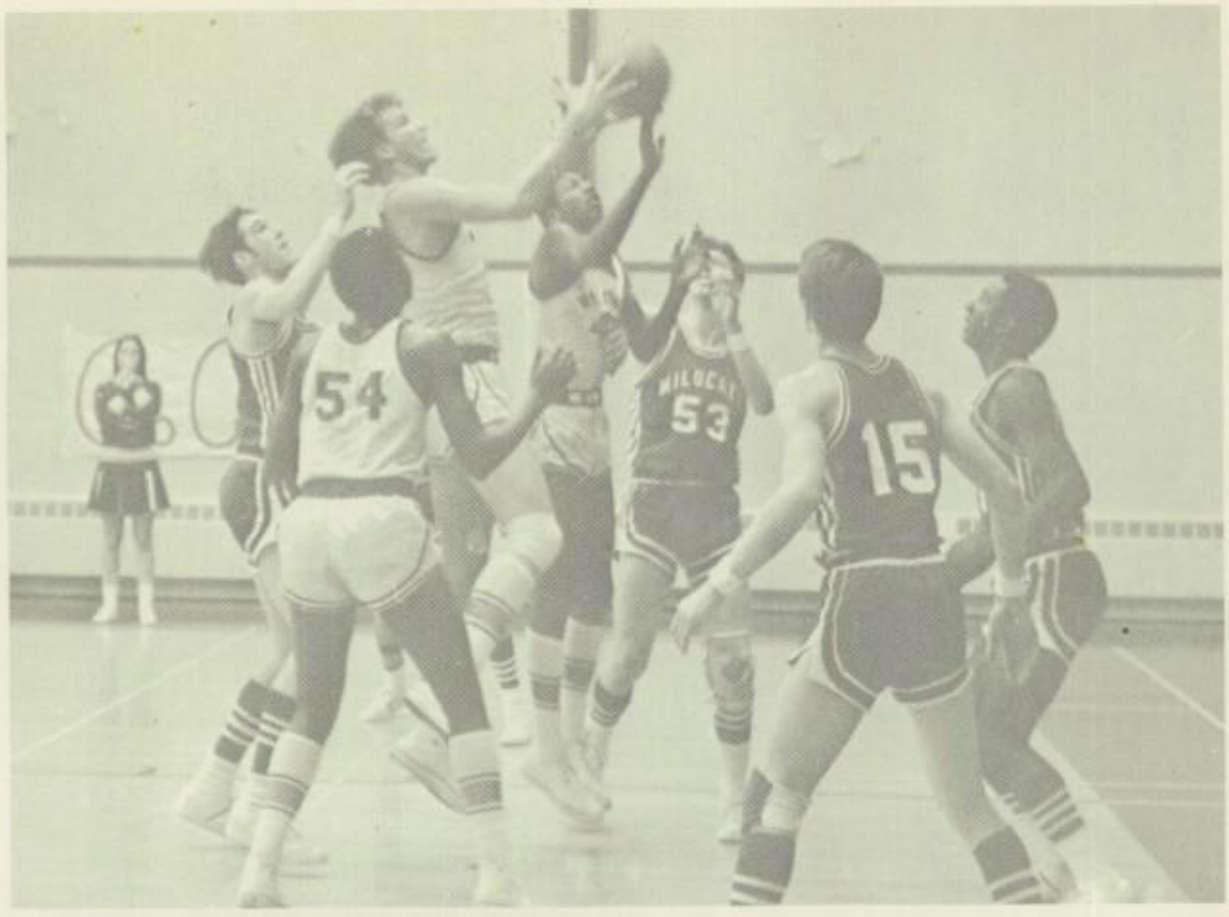
Harold Smith Leads Team In Scoring



WHAT GOES UP must come down, but when these players have to wait for the ball to either hit or miss, sometimes it seems that it takes a little longer than usual.



WILL IT HIT, or miss? Considering the shooter, it will probably hit.



SOPHOMORE JIM CROW appears to have the ball. Crow was the only sophomore to be a starter on the varsity basketball team.

Qualified Students Elected To Who's Who

Twenty-two El Dorado high school seniors, considered to be outstanding in scholarship and leadership, to have demonstrated a spirit of cooperation in educational and extra-curricular activities, and to show promise of future usefulness, were selected by faculty members and fellow students for the 1970 WILDCAT WHO'S WHO. Nominees were selected by the faculty with final selections made by vote of the Senior Class. Seniors cast votes for nominees for WHO'S WHO by a secret ballot and teachers who volunteered for the task counted the votes. Final tabulations were made in the general office. The two seniors who had the greatest number of votes automatically became Mr. and Miss EHS. The other seniors were named to the WHO'S WHO section of the yearbook.

Don't Mean That Much!!!

Throughout the year, many things happen that are only captured through the world of film. These pictures will help bring back memories of life at high school. You remember how your year went. Some days you felt as high as a kite, while others you felt like a gross omlet. In the next few pages, we would like to take you back in time to the everyday occurances of EHS.

Senior Officers Lead Leaders

We the class of '70 have lived to lead, learn, laugh, love, and loaf. This is our greatest year of glory spent in conditions of solitude, seriousness, sorrow, and stillness. Whether or not we utilized the numerous opportunities set before us by the school administration, this has probably been the most meaningful year of our existance. We began our senior year pledging our loyalty to clubs in helping support the Wildcats in Pepettes, Band, Cheerleaders and as active members in the pep assemblies. We joined our fellow club members in Thespians, Scholastic Society, National Honor Society, Key Club, Anchor Club, Bi-Racial Committee and other important associations. Our plans and dreams for the future are one step closer and may the next years of reality live up to the happiness and fulfillment of our dreams. Now we can stop and only return to our years of extended experiences in EHS through memories, no one can take away instilled, joyfull, and sadening moments that happened only to us as the SENIOR CLASS of 1970.

Senior Follies '70

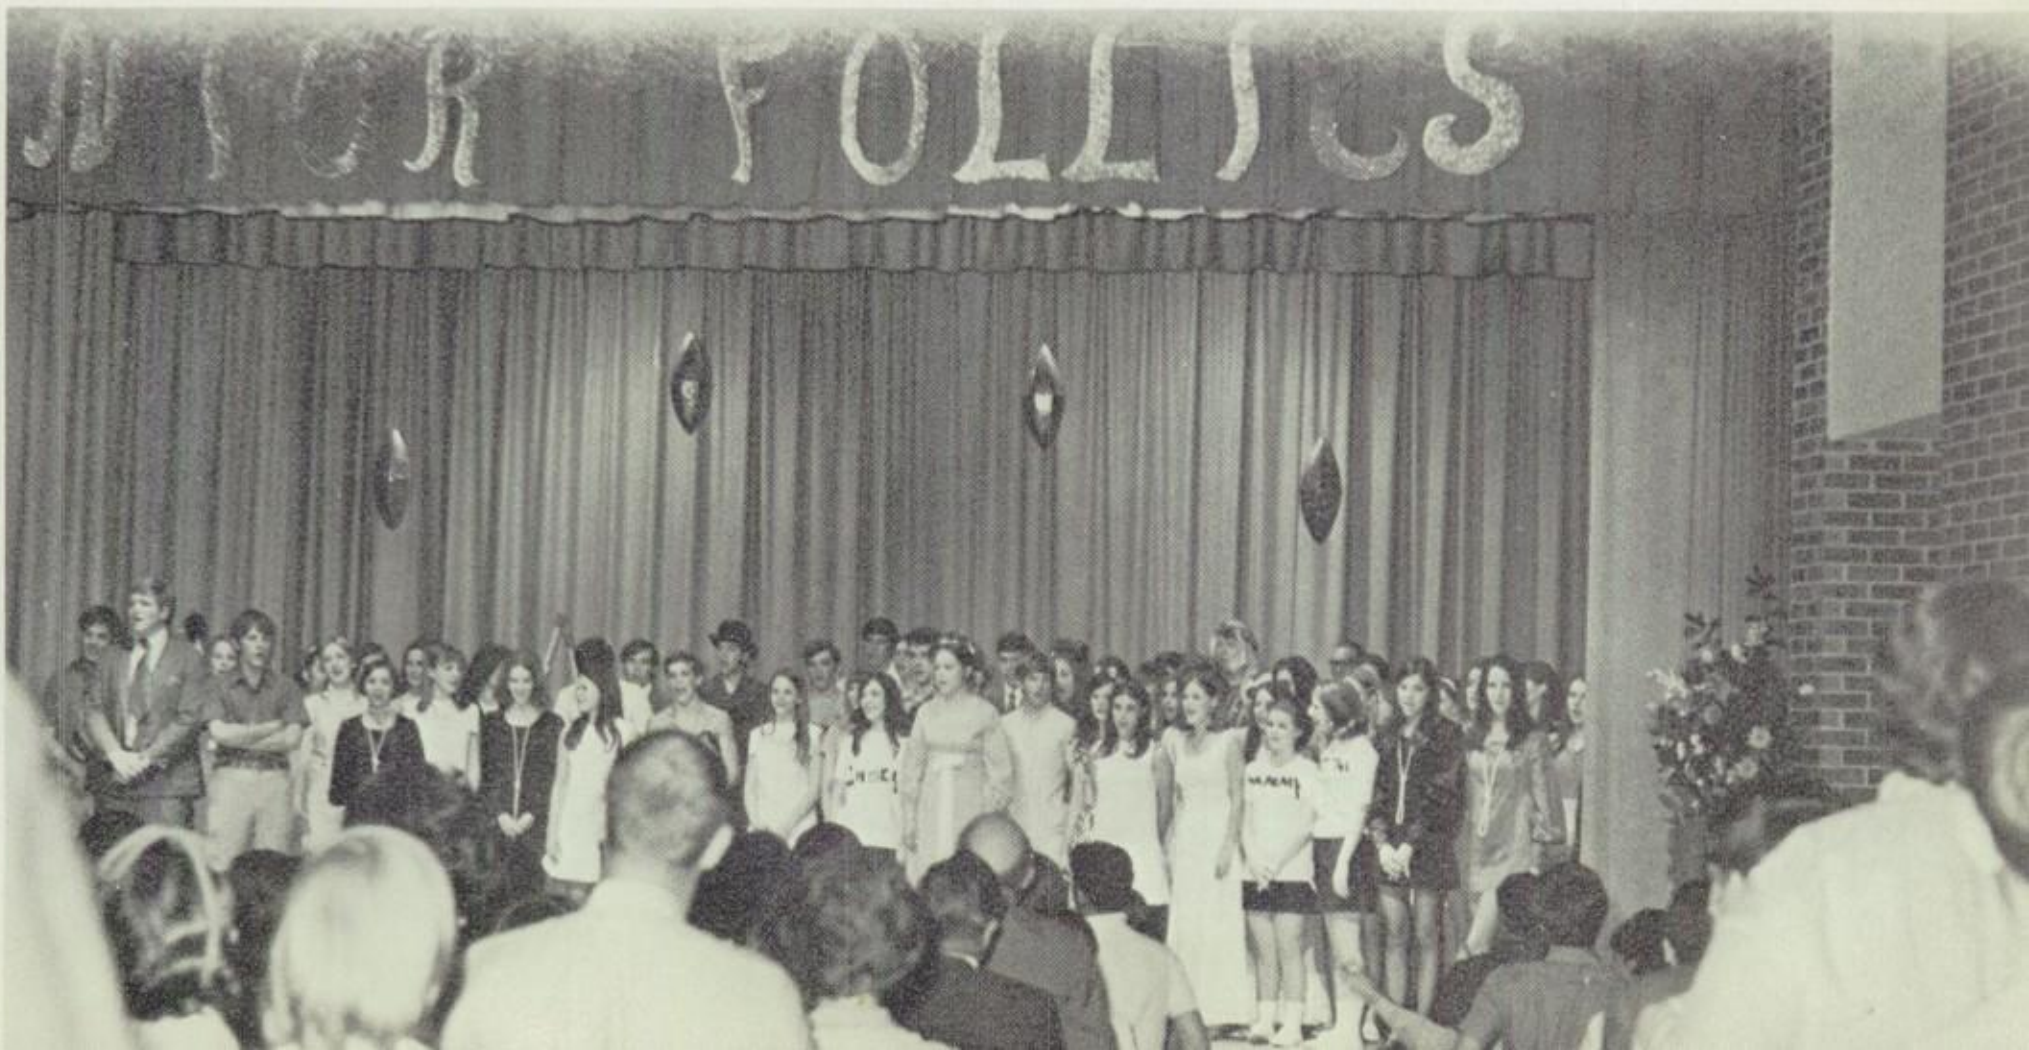
Our M C, Doug Brown.

ABOVE: THE STAGE band was fabulous as they played "Midnight Cowboy" and "Light My Fire" from their own arrangements.

BELOW: THE GREEN fairy for the prevention of ugliness, Jim Allbritton, granted Bennie's wish for good looks and he turned into Scott Gage.

Fun Filled Follies

The nights of May 7, 8, and 9 beginning at 8:00 p.m. were filled with excitment as the music to "Big Spender" and the burlesque Anchor Club dancers began. An exceptionally successful and fun production of Senior Follies was given for 1970.



POLLS

Last Preparation For World Of Reality

GAY COLE, Senior Class Treasurer, presented the money for a Marquis sign to be placed in front of West Campus. Accepting the memorium is Dr. Paul G. Henley, Vice President of the Board of Education.

DR. MARTIN GARRISON, President of Henderson State College, was the guest speaker for Commencement.

Juniors Excel; Year Proves Fruitful

As we, the Junior Class of 1970, look back upon our year we see our dreams have become realities. Yes, we started the year off right by cheering the mighty Wildcats at all football games to a 6-3-2 record. During Homecoming 1969, we assessed the homerooms to help finance many Homecoming activities and worked very hard to win second place on the Homecoming float that had a theme of "Valley of the Mighty . . . Wildcats." We participated in all phases of curricular and extra-curricular life — Pepettes, Thespians, football, Scholastic Society, and many, many more.

We sponsored various projects — spudnut sale, candy sale, cutest baby contest — in order to raise money for the Sophomore-Junior-Senior Prom. Remember how great the band was? We are the Juniors; we are the middle men; we are one-third of the spirit of El Dorado High School. But our realities were left behind in memories and now our dreams of becoming a mighty senior are coming into focus. Yes, this year we were the followers, next year we will be the leaders, the leaders whom every sophomore and junior will look up to, the mighty class of '71

ELECTED BY POPULAR vote of the Sophomore Class were the Class Favorites, Irene Frazier and Rex Luttrell.

Sophomores Set Goals High For Coming Years

We are the Sophomores of 1970. Because of the split in the two campuses of EHS, we were faced with many new difficulties and adjustments. Due to the fact that we had no "big brothers" on campus, we had to take on many responsibilities, one being leadership. We elected our own Student Council and we worked with the Student Council of West Campus to make the government of East Campus much like that of West Campus. Homecoming must have been the highlight of the year for all of us. Even if we did win third place for our float, we accepted the prize with great pride because we had done much work even for third place. Just being a part of the 1970 EHS Homecoming thrilled us beyond any compare. We felt very honored when the Juniors asked us to help them in honoring the graduating Seniors at the Junior-Senior Prom. Because of the help we gave them, the name of the prom was changed to the Sophomore-Junior-Senior Prom. We had a great deal of fun helping the Juniors decorate for the Prom, but the best part of all was just being able to go! Close to the end of the year, the Student Council sponsored our talent show. Many Sophomores participated in this and many more turned out to watch the performances. The Student Council put a lot of ime and preparation into the show and it was a big success. Our fun-filled Sophomore year finally ended and we moved a little closer to the dream of each EHS student — the dream of becoming the mighy Seniors.

Mrs. James Pettitt

Mrs. Pete Sims

So quietly you slipped away, dear friend,
Unto the Sunset Land—
So gently left us on the wings of night,
'Tis hard to understand
That you have passed beyond our straining eyes,
Beyond our feeble hail—
To those far heights where, resting, one forgets
The windings of the trail,
For you—the trail beyond the purpling hills
Led to the Promise Land;
For you—the Home with dear ones long since loved—
The Father's outstretched hand;
For us—a garden of sweet memories
Whose fragrance dulls our pain,
For us—the star of Faith—the deathless hope
That we shall meet again.

Linda's daddy is a nice man to know.

You've probably met him before. If not, you should. Because Linda's daddy is a special kind of guy.

You see, he operates a Lion Oil station. Maybe it's the one in your neighborhood.

He takes pride in his station. And in his products. And in his personal kind of service.

It's his business. And he wants it to grow.

Linda's daddy wants to sell you gas and oil for your car. But he also wants to do more for you—more than any station in town will do.

A friendly greeting. Check the battery. The tires. Fan belt. Spot potential trouble. These are the little extras that make Lion a service station instead of a gas station.

There are only a few things more important to Linda's daddy than having you as a customer.

One of them is Linda.

In Retrospect . . .

Our year began with the county fair
Which gave way to football that filled the air.
We won six of our games and tied a few
And even forgot the losses as we crowned our "Fu".
The pep assemblies you can't forget

With band, cheerleaders, and pepettes.
Next came mud and pie in the face
Topped off with the big Sadie Hawkins Day Race.
Then a new season rolled around
With shouts and cheers of get it–rebound.
The cats came out tops again and are still the best
But we had to move on, for time just doesn't rest.

Then Christmas came running and there were gifts to buy,
Cards to write-to tell old friends, "Hi!"
And with the new year came parties and jokes,
The halfing of lunch, the sharing of Cokes.
But with all this fun there came studies and crams
Everybody getting ready for their Semester exams.

The Thespian play with its hilarious cast
Gave way to Brigadoon and memories that last.
The clubs we had which were under full way
Produced new excitement each and every day.
But we couldn't stop here to look around
For our Senior year was dwindling down.

The paper staff was getting ready for its final press
With the annual room still in quite a big mess.
There was Cotillion, the Junior Prom and all kinds of fun.

Banquets, dinners, and parties kept us all on the run.
We were all happy and eager for our graduation day
But now even those thoughts seem kind of far away.
Yea, this was our year–'70–, and we did our very best,
But even now we must move along,
For time just doesn't know how to rest.
So farewell E.H.S.; but not goodbye I fear
We take with us all our memories,
And leave you, with our tears . . . . .

Roy Campbell

If things were to be different, what would become of what things became to be anyway.

The confusion, the warnings, and the tears spilled by last years editors were only a premination of what was to come. This year as editors, we felt the true agony of preparing an annual. In the beginning our goals were high with the expectation of the greatest yearbook EHS has ever produced. We've done our best to accomplish our task, now you the critics will decide. We've tried to capture through words and pictures on the pages of this book, the lives and everyday occurrences of our year at El Dorado High School.

Our staff worked to the best of their ability with some even harder than others. Thanks to Elisabeth and Debbie for their tireless efforts in finishing the Student section, for without them part of the yearbook would still be unfinished. Many, many thanks to our photographers, Randy and Raymon, for ads, group shots and candid shots, and Terry, for without his help our introduction would not have been possible. A special thanks goes to Roy for all the times he uplifted our spirits and kept us from completely giving up. And most of all we wish to thank Mr. Steve Murray for being truly "Our Fearless Leader" for without his funny little tests, jokes, and imitations we probably would have collapsed. As for those of you whom we failed to thank, we are sorry to say you did more harm than good and almost made this yearbook impossible.

Good-bye to the Journalism Department, our home away from home, we are sorry to leave. Now we present the greater portion of our lives to you.

To play this intriguing game, each player must roll the dice and move the appropriate number of spaces. The first person to complete the circuit four times is the winner.

To play: First of all, ask your teacher for permission to use dice. Then choose suitable counters (buttons, coins, or liquor bottle tops) for the characters at the bottom of the page. Needless to say if you cut the characters out you will automatically ruin this volume; however if you are a purist go right ahead. Oh, yes in the game there is some mention of money made. You may have noticed that we did not include any fake money. Play the game using REAL money, and instruct the winner to send his winnings to: The Wildcat

Summons from the Principal's Office

Roll
one die;

One: Happy Birthday, player! Let's see if we can get some of those "F's" up. By the way where did you say you were going to school next year?

Two: Congratulations! I'm so happy you have won the Many-Ha-Ha Scholarship — amounting to $3,000. However, since you were not on campus during homeroom check yesterday afternoon I am forced to . . . . .

Three: Go to jail. Go directly to jail. Do not pass the Red Room. Do not collect . . .

Four Pick up a hot cheese on rye, two orders of french fries, and a 20¢ coke and deliver it to my office immediately.

Five I realize that we rent our lockers to you and allow you to decorate them in any way you chose . . . but a dart board with Mr. Smith and Miss Cox as targets is going a bit far don't you think!!!!

Six: Now I'm as liberal and understanding as the next guy, but I'm right; and if we hear anymore about this matter I'm afraid drastic steps will have to be taken.

Seven: I understand that you are very good with dice . . . .
